ONE SPEAKER, TWO DYNAMIC PROGRAM OPTIONS

As a college administrator, comedian, former collegiate swimmer, Michael Gershe has the unique ability to use humor and his own powerful experiences to tackle tough topics in a creative and inspirational way. His "Magic of Life" program addressing alcohol awareness has been impacting audiences across the country for more than a decade, not only saving lives but also changing them. Michael's "Jewish Born, Jamaican Raised" program focuses on diversity, bullying and tolerance.

A humorous and heartfelt educational program where Michael combines stand-up comedy and audience participation with his personal story of surviving the drunken driving incident that killed his mother and nearly himself as an infancy. Audience members get the message of the dangers of alcohol and the importance of making smart choices without the feeling of being lectured.

"Jewish Born, Jamaican Raised"

It's Kosker, mon

A refreshing and entertaining take on diversity and bullying as this comical and thought provoking program is about unconditional love, the power of the human spirit and learning to believe in your own abilities. Michael pays tribute to the woman who raised his brother and him after the tragic death of his mother and shares how his diverse background has taught him tolerance and acceptance.
