Joshua Seth's "Beyond Belief: An Intimate Evening of Psychological Illusion"

This is a very simple show to stage as it is truly "theater of the mind". A man walks out into the center of a bare stage with nothing but his profound intuitive powers and proceeds to dramatically divine the innermost thoughts and feelings of the audience.

Tech Info:

- An elevated stage
- A wireless handheld mic on a stand
- A wireless headset mic (Shure or Sennheiser is preferred)
- An open input on the soundboard (XLR or 1/4") for an iPod
- A stool and a simple chair (without arms or wheels)
- Access to the stage from the audience
- A basic stage wash (lighting)
